

We had Swimming Coaching being conducted in the month of April and May 2015. The Coaching facilities were utilized by 40 member children. This year we had also appointed a lady Coach to train any lady swimmers during the camp.

Swimming coaching will be continued for spouse members/child members by Coach Ms. Neha Benita on Saturdays & Sundays from 4.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m. Members who are interested in Swimming Coaching can give the name at the reception counter.

We also had the tennis coaching provided to members for 3 days a week in the summer months for our members who we are happy to say have made good use of the facilities provided. Members please note that we are compelled to increase with effect from 1-6-2015 the service tax to 14% as per Govt Order. Hence the monthly outgo will be Rs 530 per month from June 2015 onwards.

The Committee has decided to increase with effect from 1-1-2016 the Tennis Court hire charges. Any bookings of the tennis court made for a program during the next year these new charges will be applicable:

For member's/child member's functions : Rs. 30000 plus tax
For guest's functions : Rs. 75000 plus tax

A Monthly Newsletter From Eden Club, Mangalore

It is good to be back after a very grueling summer. A Lot has taken place in the world of sports in the 2 months since we have brought out the newsletter. On the cricket front, the World cup is over and Australia are the world champions again for the record 5th time. They convincingly beat the defending champs India in the Semi Final and New Zealand in the Finals. England the founders of the game were beaten in the group stage and then shared the spoils during the West Indian Tour. England then hosted New Zealand for the test series and shared the test series. India will be embarking on a tour of Bangladesh with a new Test Captain in Virat Kohli. In Tennis Serena Williams looks very possible to win the 20th Grand Slam closing the gap on Steffi Graff. In Motors Sports formula 1 its back to the fight between Lewis Hamilton and Nico Roseberg, with Occasional good finishes from other drivers. Football too has had its ups and downs in the last few weeks wherein Sepp Blatter has resigned from as President of FIFA after winning a record 5th time due to various

At Eden meanwhile,

The Inter Club Shuttle Badminton tournament was held on 6th, 7th and 8th March 2015. For the first time 9 clubs took part in the tournament, with 35 teams competing in the various groups. Due to such huge response, we had to conduct the tournament over 3 days. Refreshments and dinner provided to all participants and their guests on all days. While the inaugural function was an informal one, we had a formal prize giving ceremony. We had with us Dy SP Mr. Jayanth Shetty as the Chief Guest and Vinod Patel as a Guest of Honour. During the function, we recognized the active pair of Basty Brothers – Mr. Sripad and Mr. Ramdas who at the combined age of nearly 150 years are very active in Badminton and take part in all tournaments held by Eden. On this occasion we requested Mr Venkatesh Shenoy to speak a few words on the Basty brothers. Mr Sudseesh was recognized for his consistent performance in Badminton over the last few years. The Prize giving ceremony was then conducted followed by Vote of Thanks by Ivan Pinto, Sports Chairman.

Results of the tournament are as follows:

Last month in May on 31-5-2015 we conducted the Eden District Level Swimming Competition wherein more than 280 children participated. The Swimming competition was inaugurated by the Deputy Commissioner Shri AB Ibrahim who spoke on the need to encourage the children to take part and be successful in such competitions. Mr. Nigam Vasani President KCCI, Mr. Ram Mohan Maroor, Vice President KCCI, Commander Mascarenhas, Mr. Ramakrishna Main Referee and Sports Chairman Ivan Pinto were present during the inauguration function. This year we had 15 children of our members too taking part in the competition, with Master Ryan Naronha bagging a medal in one of the events. In the evening we had a simple Prize giving ceremony and the Chief Guest for the function was Dr Sujir, Trustee Eden Aquatic & Sports Foundation and a person who has always encouraged Swimmers in and around Mangalore. Mrs. Avril D'Souza Director Daijiworld.com was the Guest of Honour. The Overhaul Champions in the Boys and Girls events were bagged by Jai Hind Swimming Club, Mangalore. We the organizers would like to thank all participants, the referees and the Eden Staff for helping us to make this competition a success. We hope to see more member children of Eden Club taking part in the future competitions.
